Hardlevel Commitments:

Money laundering is a process that aims to hide goods, capital or products in order to give them a final appearance of legitimacy seeking to hide the criminal origin of capital, goods or products.

With the objective of preventing, detecting and mitigating, Hardlevel is committed to:

- In the geographies where has operations, comply with the applicable legislation regarding to this matter;
- Initiate and/ or maintain commercial relations with entities that develop legitimate activities, whose sources of income are legitimate;
- Encourage communication between stakeholders of situations that may be suspicious of this type of activity.

Hardlevel is committed to monitoring and promoting best practices about money laundering in the organization and among all stakeholders.
